In Re: Archdiocese of Milwaukee, Case No. 11-20059-svk

Dear Judge Kelley:

This letter confirms that the office of the United States Trustee and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors have approved the attached proposed order approving the Debtor's payment of certain psychological counseling and therapy for Victims/Survivors.

The proposed order will also be uploaded to the Court using the CM/ECF system.

If the Court has any questions, please contact me. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Michael E. Gosman

victims/survivors and pay any costs incident thereto; limited objections have been filed opposing certain relief sought in the Motion; no objections have been raised to the Debtor's continued payment of certain psychological counseling and therapy for victims/survivors; and it appearing that Debtor's continued payment of certain psychological counseling and therapy for victims/survivors is in the best interest of the Debtor's estate, its creditors, and other parties in interest; and it appearing that the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334; and it appearing that this proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2); and it appearing that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this District is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and notice of the Motion and the opportunity for a hearing on the Motion was appropriate under the particular circumstances and that no other or further notice need be given; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefore;

It is hereby ordered:

1. The Motion is GRANTED in part, as set forth herein.
2. The Debtor may pay for certain psychological counseling and therapy for Victims/Survivors, as more fully detailed in the Motion, with an annual cap on such expenditures of $100,000.
3. Should the Debtor believe it necessary to spend more than $100,000 annually for certain psychological counseling and therapy for Victims/Survivors, it may present a motion to this Court requesting such authority and nothing in this Order will be deemed to prejudice such request.
4. At a later date the Court will rule on the other relief sought in the Motion.
